Rights Related to Automated Decision Making and Profiling

St Ewe Parish Council does not use any form of automated decision making or the profiling of individual personal data.

Website

St Ewe Parish Council runs its website (st-ewe-parish.co.uk) for the community. Information about the parish council is organised and uploaded by the clerk. Some of the information about local events, tourism, etc, is organised and uploaded by volunteers.

Like many site operators, our website will collect information ("Log Data") that your browser sends whenever you visit our website. This Log Data may include information such as your computer's Internet Protocol ("IP") address, browser type, browser version, the pages of our Site that you visit, the time and date of your visit, the time spent on those pages and other statistics. In addition, our website may use third party services such as Google Analytics that collect, monitor and analyse this data. This data is completely anonymised and does not include personal information such as name or email address. Images on the website, do not have embedded location data (EXIF GPS) included. Articles on this site rarely include embedded content (e.g. videos, images, articles, etc.); however, if there is imbedded content from other websites, it behaves in the exact same way as if the visitor has visited the other website.

Cookies. Cookies are files with small amounts of data, which may include an anonymous unique identifier. Cookies are sent to your browser from a web site and stored on your computer's hard drive. Like many sites, our website uses "cookies" to collect information. You can instruct your browser to refuse all cookies or to indicate when a cookie is being sent. However, if you do not accept cookies, you may not be able to use some portions of our website.

Conclusion

In accordance with the law, we only collect a limited amount of information about you that is necessary for correspondence, information and service provision. We do not use profiling, we do not sell or pass your data to third parties. We do not use your data for purposes other than those specified. We make sure your data is stored securely. We delete all information deemed to be no longer necessary. We constantly review our Privacy Policies to keep the council up to date in protecting your data.

Complaints

If you have a complaint regarding the way your personal data has been processed, you may make a complaint to the Clerk, whose contact details are on page one, and/or the Information Commissioners Office, casework@ico.org.uk Tel: 0303 123 1113
